MRS. FERGUSON TAKES STAND IN THE DOYLE TRIAL

For nearly two hours this morning Mrs. Margaret Ferguson of Seattle, mother of Edna Ferguson who is one of the former wives of the defendant, was on the stand in the federal court room to give her testimony in the case against Joseph A. Doyle and his wife, Maude School-Doyle, the trial of which commenced today. The jury was completed yesterday afternoon and is composed of T. M. Honan, C. T. Osborne, E. K. Clarke, S. M. Lowrey, R. F. Clarke, E. Tarpley, Jacob Lando, C. Crozier, P. A. Swift, H. P. Roth, James Blaisdell and Alexander Burgess.

Under examination by District Attorney Jeff McCann, Mrs. Ferguson related her version of the proceedings between Doyle and his present wife from the time Mrs. Ferguson and her daughter came to Honolulu during the latter part of 1913. Prior to this, she told of the marriage of Doyle and her daughter.

The cross examination, conducted by Claudius McBride, attorney for the defense, brought from the witness testimony which, in spots, was tinged with unsavory statements, especially when the attorney for the defense asked the witness to repeat to the court the epithets which she alleges Doyle was in the habit of directing at his present wife before the couple was married. In one instance during the examination by the defense and in another during the examination by the prosecution, the witness was requested to write these alleged epithets on paper, saying that she preferred not to speak them. Those papers were handed to the judge and to the members of the jury.

Instances of alleged cruelty inflicted by Doyle upon his present wife were brought out in the testimony of Mrs. Ferguson. Near the close of the session this morning she was sharply grilled by Attorney McBride regarding the home relations of Doyle and her daughter during the time the couple was married and living on the mainland.

SPEEDY $10,000 VERDICT IN AUTO BABY KILLING

NEW YORK—A jury in Supreme Court Justice John J. Brady's court in Bronx county had been out only four and a half minutes when it returned a verdict of $10,000, the full amount asked, for Charles A. Rood, of 630 East Two Hundred and Thirty-fifth street, and against the Chester Hill Auto Service Company of Mount Vernon.

On July 30 last, two automobiles, one owned by the defendant, and driven by Tony Deiso of Mount Vernon, raced along the White Plains road at 40 miles an hour. Deiso's car killed Rood's baby in its carriage and seriously injured both Rood and his wife, near their home. The other auto killed Robert Scott. Its driver, J. A. Sullivan, and Deiso were tried on charges of manslaughter and acquitted.
